

Reminder Budget

We agree how many reminders a job gets each week. When they run out, a phone does the reminding, not a person.

How the budget works

1. The person who owns a job sets its budget. The other person agrees, or we talk it over.
2. Each reminder is one tick in that day's box.
3. The person reminding adds the tick.
4. When a budget is used up, the owner sets a phone reminder and nobody else reminds for the rest of the week.
